1. Question: We were selected for year one reporting and I just want to clarify this. We are going by our fiscal year, which begins October 1 through September 30. So, we should start collecting our data October 1, 2022 through October 2023 and then report after that?
 - a. Answer: That sounds right to me. You would collect October 1, 2022 through September 30, 2023, and then you'd have a data reporting period that would be five months starting October 1, 2023.
