

Preventive Care & the Marketplace: What's Covered?

Most health plans must cover a set of preventive services, like shots and screenings tests, at no cost to you. This is true even if you haven't met your yearly deductible.

Preventive services prevent or detect illness at an early stage, when treatment is likely to work best. These services are free only when you get them from a doctor or other provider in your plan's network.

Here are some common services:

All adults

- Blood pressure screenings
- Cholesterol screenings: Certain ages + those at high risk
- Depression screenings
- Immunizations
- Obesity screenings and counseling

Visit HealthCare.gov/preventive-care-adults for the full list.

Women

- Breast cancer mammography screenings
- Cervical cancer screenings
- Domestic, interpersonal violence screenings and counseling
- Tobacco use screenings and interventions
- Well-woman visits

Pregnant or may become pregnant

- Breastfeeding supplies, support, and counseling,
- Folic acid supplements
- Gestational diabetes screenings: At 24 weeks (or later) + those at high risk
- Hepatitis B screenings
- Maternal depression screenings at well-baby visits
