

Failure to File and Reconcile (FTR) Recheck Notice (2-year): Consumers enrolled in 2024 Marketplace coverage who might lose financial help in 2025

When do we send this notice?

Consumers with Marketplace coverage who use advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) must file federal income taxes and reconcile APTC each year. If IRS records show that a household hasn't filed federal income taxes and reconciled APTC for 2 tax years, the Marketplace sends an initial notice to the tax filer telling them to file a tax return for those years and reconcile APTC right away. A consumer or their tax filer gets a notice like this one if the Marketplace rechecks IRS data and finds the consumer or tax filer still hasn't filed taxes and reconciled APTC for those tax years.

What does the notice tell the consumer?

The 2-year FTR recheck notice:

- Explains the requirement to file federal income tax returns and reconcile APTC each year that the household has Marketplace coverage and uses APTC.
- Tells the consumer or tax filer that they're at risk of losing their household's financial help for 2025.
- Describes next steps for filing tax returns and reconciling APTC for previous tax years, if the consumer or tax filer still needs to do that.
- Encourages the consumer or tax filer to update their Marketplace application information after filing federal income taxes and reconciling APTC so they'll get accurate eligibility results and have a better chance of keeping their financial help.

Last warning: Your Marketplace financial help will end as early as May 1. Act now.

Dear [Name 1]:

Your advance payments of the premium tax credit, also called “financial help,” will end as early as May 1. This means the Health Insurance Marketplace® will stop paying advance payments of the premium tax credit to your insurance company to lower your Marketplace plan premium costs. You’ll have to start paying full price for:

- Your Marketplace premium.
- Your covered services (if you’ve been getting extra savings to lower the cost of those services).

This is the last letter you’ll get before your financial help ends.

Why am I losing financial help?

Our records show you (or others in your household) used advance payments of the premium tax credit in [3 years ago] and [2 years ago], but didn’t file a federal income tax return or include IRS Form 8962 “Premium Tax Credit (PTC)” to reconcile the advance payments of the premium tax credit for those years.

Every year your household has Marketplace coverage and uses advance payments of the premium tax credit, you must file a federal income tax return and reconcile the advance payments of the premium tax credit you used with the amount of premium tax credit you were eligible for during the coverage year. You must complete IRS Form 8962 and include it with your return.

We recently checked IRS records again and confirmed you still haven't filed your [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] federal income tax returns with IRS Form 8962.

When will my financial help end?

If you don't immediately file a federal income tax return with IRS Form 8962 for [3 years ago] and [2 years ago], everyone in your household will lose financial help starting as early as May

1. If you lose financial help:

- You'll get a new eligibility notice that shows you and other household members don't qualify for the advance payments of the premium tax credit or extra savings for covered services.
- The Marketplace will stop paying advance payments of the premium tax credit on your behalf to lower your premium costs.
- You'll stay enrolled in your current health plan, but you'll have to pay the full cost for your Marketplace plan.

What should I do next?

If you already filed [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] federal income tax returns with IRS Form 8962:

1. Log into your Marketplace account and update your [current year] Marketplace application. Make sure all your information (including household income) is correct.
2. Check the box at the end of your application telling us you filed a tax return with IRS Form 8962 to reconcile your premium tax credit for [3 years ago] and [2 years ago]. You'll get a new eligibility notice that shows your household's options for coverage and savings.

If you haven't filed your [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] federal income tax returns or didn't include IRS Form 8962:

1. Log into your Marketplace account to get a copy of your IRS tax Form 1095-A for both [3 years ago] and [2 years ago].
 - You can also call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 for a copy of the form. TTY users can call 1-855-889-4325.
 - If you applied for coverage through a Marketplace enrollment partner, contact them for a copy of your IRS Form 1095-A.

2. Use your Form 1095-A to fill out IRS Form 8962 to reconcile your [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] advance payments of the premium tax credit. You'll fill out a separate form for each year and include it with that year's tax filing.
3. File your [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] federal income tax returns immediately, even if you have an extension.
 - You must include IRS Form 8962 when you file your returns.
 - If you filed a federal income tax return for [3 years ago] and [2 years ago], but didn't include IRS Form 8962, you might need to file an amended federal income tax return (IRS Form 1040X).
 - Visit the IRS' Interactive Tax Assistant at IRS.gov/help/ita or call the IRS at 1-866-682-7451, ext. 568 if you have questions about your household's tax filing status for past years.
4. After you file your [3 years ago] and [2 years ago] federal income tax returns with IRS Form 8962, log into your Marketplace account and update your [current year] Marketplace application. Check the box at the end of your application telling us you filed a tax return with IRS Form 8962 to reconcile your premium tax credit for [3 years ago] and [2 years ago]. You'll get a new eligibility notice that shows your household's options for coverage and savings.

If you're not sure you have a Marketplace account through HealthCare.gov, or you think someone might have enrolled you in Marketplace coverage without your knowledge, call the Marketplace Call Center.

What if I lose financial help and I disagree?

If your financial help ends for [current year] but you believe you are still eligible to receive it, you can file an appeal. Visit HealthCare.gov/marketplace-appeals to learn more.
