Starting January 2024, you'll get more help with Medicare Part D drug costs

Good news. This notice is to let you know that starting in January 2024, you'll get more help paying your Medicare drug coverage costs. You'll pay $0 monthly drug plan premium and $0 yearly deductible for Medicare Part D drug coverage in 2024.

You qualify for this help because of a 2022 prescription drug law that lowers prescription drug costs for people with Medicare like you.

You don't need to do anything now

You don't need to do anything to get this additional help with Medicare drug coverage costs.

If there are other changes to your Medicare drug plan or Extra Help coverage this fall, Medicare will send you a letter in the mail with information about what to do next. The letter will be on colored paper, and come in a white envelope from Medicare.
