This is a paperless conference; participants should download all conference materials prior to arriving at the conference. Presentation materials will be available on the CMS website after March 28, 2006 (go to the Meetings & Conferences page, http://www.cms.hhs.gov/MedicareAdvPartDTrain/03\_MeetingsConferences.asp, and click on the Bidding Conference link). Presentation materials will not be available for downloading onsite.

SECURITY: This conference will be held in a Federal building. Strict security procedures will be enforced and proper identification is required. Please note the following guidelines:

Visitors are subject to a vehicular search, and can only gain access through the Central Building Main Lobby. **Visitors must be on a pre-approved list and have two forms of identification. One form of ID must be a valid (non-expired), Government-issued photo ID badge (i.e., driver's license, age of majority card, official school ID, etc.) Visitors will be issued a temporary building pass from the guard at the Central Building Main Lobby.

CMS has scanning devices at all guarded building entrances to comply with the Department of Justice's vulnerability assessment of our complex. The walkthrough scanners expedite entry to comply with increased security measures. Our walkthrough devices are the same as used by the airport and are certified safe for everyone, including pregnancies.

The scanners allow for safe and reliable examination of all parcels, including purses, brought into the complex. If a suspicious item shows on the monitor screen, the guard is authorized to request the individual to remove the item from the package to be further examined. Failure to comply, and dependent upon the nature of the item, will result in a delay in admittance while the Federal Police are dispatched to assist the guard. Guards conduct a normal visual inspection of bags when individuals exit the complex.

Conference participants will be allowed access to the conference area, computer training rooms, bathrooms, main lobby, and the cafeteria. All other locations within the CMS complex are off-limits to conference participants unless escorted by a CMS employee.

Arrival Time

Due to the increased security measures, all participants planning to attend the conference in person should allow appropriate time to get through both security checks. You will be able to gain entrance into the building at 8:00 a.m., so arrive early. With the number of participants expected for this event, there will be some delays. We appreciate your patience and understanding.
